

HN LIT - LEADERS IN TRAINING

Ignite your professional and personal development during Hungerford's student focused summer leadership program. You will learn from our CPA professionals through one-on-one interaction, gain a network of local accounting students, and participate in the CliftonStrengths assessment with talent building workshop. The half day program will take place on site at our Grand Rapids office location with a catered networking luncheon, followed by optional interviews. This is a great opportunity to get your foot in the door for public accounting internships.
